Public Disclosure:
Baptist Bible College status changed from “Accredited – Probation” to “Accredited”
Effective: February 28, 2019

The Higher Learning Commission has removed the sanction of Probation for Baptist Bible College in Springfield, Missouri.

HLC took this action based on the institution’s ability to demonstrate it now meets HLC’s Criteria for Accreditation. Its status of Probation was extended in June 2018 when the HLC Board determined the institution was still out of compliance with HLC’s Criteria for Accreditation. The institution originally was placed on Probation in 2016.

About the Higher Learning Commission
The Higher Learning Commission accredits approximately 1,000 colleges and universities that have a home base in one of 19 states that stretch from West Virginia to Arizona. HLC is a private, nonprofit accrediting agency. It is recognized by the U.S. Department of Education and the Council for Higher Education Accreditation. Questions?
