

Public Disclosure:
Kansas City Kansas Community College status changed
from “Accredited – Probation” to “Accredited”
Effective: November 3, 2022

The Higher Learning Commission has removed the sanction of Probation for Kansas City Kansas Community College in Kansas City, Kansas.

HLC took this action based on the institution’s ability to demonstrate that it is in compliance with HLC requirements. It was placed on Probation in November 2020 when it was determined to be out of compliance with HLC requirements.

To provide transparency for all stakeholders, HLC publishes a Directory of Institutions on its website (hlcommission.org/directory). The directory includes information about a college or university's accreditation status, recent activities and upcoming activities.

About the Higher Learning Commission

The Higher Learning Commission accredits approximately 1,000 colleges and universities in the United States. HLC is a private, nonprofit accrediting agency. It is recognized by the U.S. Department of Education and the Council for Higher Education Accreditation. Questions? Contact info@hlcommission.org or call 312.263.0456.

Date of Action: November 3, 2022

Date of Posting: November 18, 2022