Public Disclosure:
Arizona Christian University status changed from “Accredited – On Notice” to “Accredited”
Effective: November 1, 2018

The Higher Learning Commission has removed the sanction of Notice for Arizona Christian University in Phoenix, Arizona.

HLC took this action based on the institution’s ability to demonstrate it now meets HLC’s Criteria for Accreditation. It was placed on Notice in November 2016 when it was determined to be at risk of being out of compliance with HLC’s Criteria for Accreditation.

About the Higher Learning Commission
The Higher Learning Commission accredits approximately 1,000 colleges and universities that have a home base in one of 19 states that stretch from West Virginia to Arizona. HLC is a private, nonprofit accrediting agency. It is recognized by the U.S. Department of Education and the Council for Higher Education Accreditation. Questions?
