

Public Disclosure:
Taylor Business Institute status changed
from “Accredited” to “Accredited – On Notice”
Effective: November 4, 2021

The Higher Learning Commission has placed Taylor Business Institute in Chicago, Illinois, on Notice. HLC took this action because it determined that the institution is at risk of being out of compliance with HLC's Criteria for Accreditation.

The period of Notice is not more than two years. While on Notice, the institution remains accredited, and it has the opportunity to remedy the issues that led to the sanction.

What This Means for Students

While on Notice, the institution remains accredited, and it has the opportunity to remedy the issues that led to the sanction. In most cases, other colleges and universities will continue to accept the institution's credits in transfer or for admission to a higher degree program. All colleges and universities define their own transfer and admission policies. Students interested in pursuing a higher degree or transferring should contact the college or university they plan to attend so that they are knowledgeable about the admission and transfer policies for that college or university.

Noted Criteria for Accreditation

HLC concluded that the institution meets, but with concerns, the following HLC Criterion/Criteria for Accreditation:

- Criterion Two, Core Component 2.A, “the institution establishes and follows policies and processes to ensure fair and ethical behavior on the part of its governing board, administration, faculty and staff.”
- Criterion Five, Core Component 5.B, “the institution's resource base supports its educational offerings and its plans for maintaining and strengthening their quality in the future.”

Next Steps

The institution is required to provide evidence that it has addressed the issues that led to the sanction, no later February 1, 2023 in preparation for HLC's on-site evaluation no later than April 2023. In November 2023, the HLC Board of Trustees will determine whether the institution has demonstrated that it is in compliance with the Criteria for Accreditation without concerns and whether Notice can be removed.
