

Public Disclosure:
Vermilion Community College
Voluntary Resignation of Accreditation
Effective: May 23, 2022

Vermilion Community College in Ely, Minnesota voluntarily resigned its separate accreditation with the Higher Learning Commission effective May 23, 2022, in order to consolidate with the other colleges of the Northeast Higher Education District (Hibbing Community College, Itasca Community College, Mesabi Range College and Rainy River Community College). The result is a single HLC-accredited institution called Minnesota North College.

Vermilion Community College's status as a separately accredited institution expired after the effective date above. Credits and degrees earned from the institution through that date remain accredited.

Transcripts and records will be retained by and available through Minnesota North College.

To provide transparency for all stakeholders, HLC publishes a Directory of Institutions on its website (hlcommission.org/directory). The directory includes information about a college or university's accreditation status and history with HLC.
